

Forest of Hope Guest House and Camp Site, a unique facility to access Gishwati

To visit Gishwati forest of the Gishwati-Mukura National Park, it is a requirement to stay at the Forest of Hope Guest House and Camp Site. This is an exclusive experience that help you to enjoy the beauty of Gishwati with your family members and friends. Gishwati is an example of ecotourism at its best, with the proceeds of every visit contributing to the reforestation, protection and conservation of both the park's diverse flora and fauna and the upliftment of its surrounding communities.

Facilities:

The Forest of Hope Guest House offers 2 en-suite rooms with 2 twin beds including mosquito nets; no triple rooms are available. There is hot water, electricity and WIFI available. The Guest House will cater for 3 meals a day – breakfast, lunch and dinner, with the latter two from a set menu prepared by the Gishwati chef. Included in the rate are certain drinks like tea, coffee, water and juice. A small selection of other drinks are available at additional charge.

The Forest of Hope Camp Site is un-serviced and only suitable for self-catering guests. Toilet and shower facilities, a small fireplace, a barbeque stand and water for cleaning and cooking are available.

Guided activities in the park and in the surrounding communities are included, with the community activities paid separately to the community cooperatives. Laundry available on request at an additional fee.

Note: There are no vehicles on site at the Forest of Hope Guest House and Camp Site, thus guests need to travel with their own vehicle, or book a vehicle via their tour operator. For the 1 km access road a 4x4 vehicle is recommended.
